

NOTIS Translation/Interpretation Tuition Scholarship

Purpose: This scholarship is intended to help a student in the NOTIS geographical area attending a translation or interpretation program (either online or in person) cover the costs of tuition, books and other program-related materials, to be used during the 2018-2019 academic year. The recipient will apply the amount towards tuition and books, and will write a blog post for the NOTIS website.

Award: $750 to cover the cost of tuition and other program-related costs.

Eligibility: Applicants must be a member of NOTIS in good standing and must not have received a NOTIS scholarship previously.

Selection Committee: The selection committee will comprise at least three members, one of whom is not on the NOTIS board.

To apply: To apply for the scholarship, please submit an essay that describes the following:

- 1) What you are studying, where you are studying, and how you could use the scholarship;
- 2) Your plans for your work in the T&I field;
- 3) The planned topic of your blog post for NOTIS.

Please limit your essay to 300 words, and submit the essay by June 30, 2017. Please send your essay to info@notisnet.org.
