

COURT INTERPRETER WRITTEN EXAM

The Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) is offering the court interpreter written exam - the first step to become a credentialed court interpreter. Washington courts needs credentialed interpreters in a many languages.

April 1, Bellevue and
April 8, Spokane

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: MARCH 15

EXAM FEE: $75

OPTIONAL PREP COURSE

The AOC is also offering an optional two-day exam preparation course. February 11 & 12 in Spokane and February 18 & 19 in Seattle. See website for details.

Registration and more information about the exam can be found at:

<http://www.courts.wa.gov/interpreters>

Court Interpreters:

Work in courts and legal settings

Are bilingual with mastery of English and a second language

Provide accurate, unedited, and complete interpretations on a variety of topics.

Getting Credentialed:

Adds your to a registry used by courts and other government agencies to find Interpreters.

Shows your dedication to your work and your professional development.

Helps people in your community access the legal system even if they do not speak English.

What is the exam?

It's a multiple choice exam testing English skills and court knowledge. See the website for more information.

Who can take the exam?

Anyone is welcome to take the test. See the website for details on the skills needed to pass the exam.