PRESIDING MAGISTRATES' WORK IN MUNICIPAL AND DISTRICT COURTS AND IMPORTANT ASPECTS OF LAW FOR CERTIFIED AND REGISTERED COURT INTERPRETERS
HON. LINDA B. KIPLING, ISLAND COUNTY COURT COMMISSIONER

Most people come into contact with the court system through District and Municipal Courts. They resolve traffic tickets, appear in small claims cases or answer to lower level criminal charges. This session will provide a guide to the civil and criminal jurisdiction of the Washington District and Municipal Courts. It will also address some recent changes to the law and the challenges confronting judicial officers as a result.

COMM. LINDA B. KIPLING was appointed Court Commissioner for the Island County District Court in November 2004. She currently presides over criminal calendars for Island County and the City of Oak Harbor and the civil, small claims and traffic infraction calendars. Prior to taking the bench, she served as a deputy prosecutor in Island and Snohomish Counties from 1991 – 2004. Currently, she is a member of the Diversity Committee and Chair of the By-laws Committee of the District and Municipal Court Judges Association. Commissioner Kipling graduated from The Ohio State University College of Law and received her undergraduate degree from Alderson-Broadus College in Philippi, West Virginia. She was admitted to the New York State Bar in 1986 and the Washington State Bar in 1990.
